ENRICHING EXPERIENCES FOR OUR GUESTS AND OUR ENVIRONMENT

We believe that a responsible meeting is not only what you experience in the meeting room but also knowing that your hotel respects the destination around it.

We're proud to partner the leaders in geotourism, the National Geographic Center for Sustainable Destinations. Our ambition is that guests enjoy enriching experiences that reveal what makes a place truly special – its heritage, culture and tradition – and the importance of protecting it.

At InterContinental we use a holistic approach to being a responsible business: to work from the grass roots up, recognising each individual hotel team as the experts best placed to use their local knowledge for developing community and environmental initiatives that meet the specific needs of the destination. This Insider Collection gives delegates access to some of these unique experiences, and for those meetings that stay in the meeting room, you can be assured our hotel is working behind the scenes to protect what is special about the place for fellow travellers.

DISCOVER ROMANIA'S FINE WINES WITH OUR SOMMELIER

Marius Bratu is a young and passionate sommelier working for the former royal wine cellars. He will tell your guests the fascinating story of Romania's love affair with fine wine and share his insights during a special tasting break.

Romanian vine culture is said to be one of the oldest in Europe, dating back almost 6000 years. Legend says that the Thracian god of wine was born just north of the Danube Delta. Local varieties such as Galbena de Odobesti, Feteasca or Tamâioasa Româneasca formed the basis of the wines here until the 18th century. Today wine is cultivated right across Romania with some wines consistently winning international awards for their quality.

DISCOVER ROMANIA'S RICH FOLK DANCE HERITAGE

Ioana Popescu, an expert from the Peasant Museum in Bucharest, will introduce your delegates to the magical world of Romanian folk dance. Romania is unique in Europe, as its folklore still exists in its natural environment. In past times, villagers would meet every Sunday afternoon and dance together. Today, this ritual is kept for big religious or social celebrations.

The national dance, HORA, is a joyful one, uniting the community and keeping it happy. Four people hold hands and dance together in a circle, with simple but synchronized steps. Another original Romanian dance is Calusarii, meaning 'horsemen', which drives out evil spirits and demands a very high degree of agility, power and endurance. Delegates will be enthralled.

CREATE SEASONAL CHEER FOR LOCAL HOMELESS PEOPLE

For a creative and rewarding interaction that brings delegates closer to the local community, this opportunity is perfect. The Casa Ioana Association provides a home to almost 100 homeless families and their children. Every year, before Christmas and Easter, the children help their families by painting themed artworks, which are then turned into e-cards.

Your delegates can contribute to their mission by painting greetings cards made from recycled paper or other recycled materials. We will help by sending the greeting cards to our corporate database or you can choose to collect the greeting cards and send them to your company contacts.

LEND A HELPING HAND TO CHILDREN SUFFERING WITH CANCER

'You can, too' is the slogan of a campaign by the Temerarii Association to offer social support to young people and children with cancer.

Your delegates are invited to spend some quality time with the children and young people, sharing a simple meal, or by taking part in cultural activities or sporting events. This is an uplifting and rewarding way for your delegates to spend part of their stay in Bucharest.

LEARN TO DANCE THE CALUSARII

At the Operetta National Theatre, your delegates can learn the steps of Romania's most famous folk dance. 'Calusarii' features dancers who wear white and red tunics, with brightly coloured ribbons streaming from their hats. Bells are attached to their ankles and dances include the use of sticks held upright or pointing at the ground.

In what promises to be a relaxing but energizing team-building event, delegates will receive one-to-one tuition from the Operetta's most famous dancers. This is an entertaining interaction and a wonderful way for delegates to experience at first hand authentic local folk culture.

ENGAGE WITH TRADITIONAL ROMANIAN HANDICRAFTS

This is a chance for your delegates to be a part of maintaining Romanian heritage. Master ceramics craftsmen and women from villages located in different parts of Romania, including Transylvania and Maramures, will share their skills and teach your delegates some of their working secrets right here in the hotel.

In Romania, ceramic objects are still used in rituals to mark important events such as births, marriages, baptisms, and funerals. Today's ceramic art form integrates the traditional with the modern with its simplicity of form, colour and symmetry.

Delegates will be able to take home their own ceramic 'masterpiece', a unique and personal memento of authentic Romania.
