DISCOVER THE LONG AND PROUD TRADITION OF CZECH BEER

A long-held tradition in the Czech Republic is the drinking and enjoyment of beer.

Most of today's beer is based on the pale lager brewed since 1842 in the town of Pilsen. However, there are many delicious local beer varieties throughout the Czech Republic.

Mr. Jan Kocka is a renowned beer expert. A brewer himself, he will provide your guests with fascinating insights into the history and process of beer-making from Bohemia and Moravia, right up to the present day Czech Republic. During special beer breaks delegates will also get the chance to try different types of local beers for themselves.

For an authentic Czech beer experience, Mr. Kocka will also be happy to show you some of Prague's famous beer houses.

Authentic travel experiences – whether for business or pleasure – so often depend on what truly makes a place unique – its history.

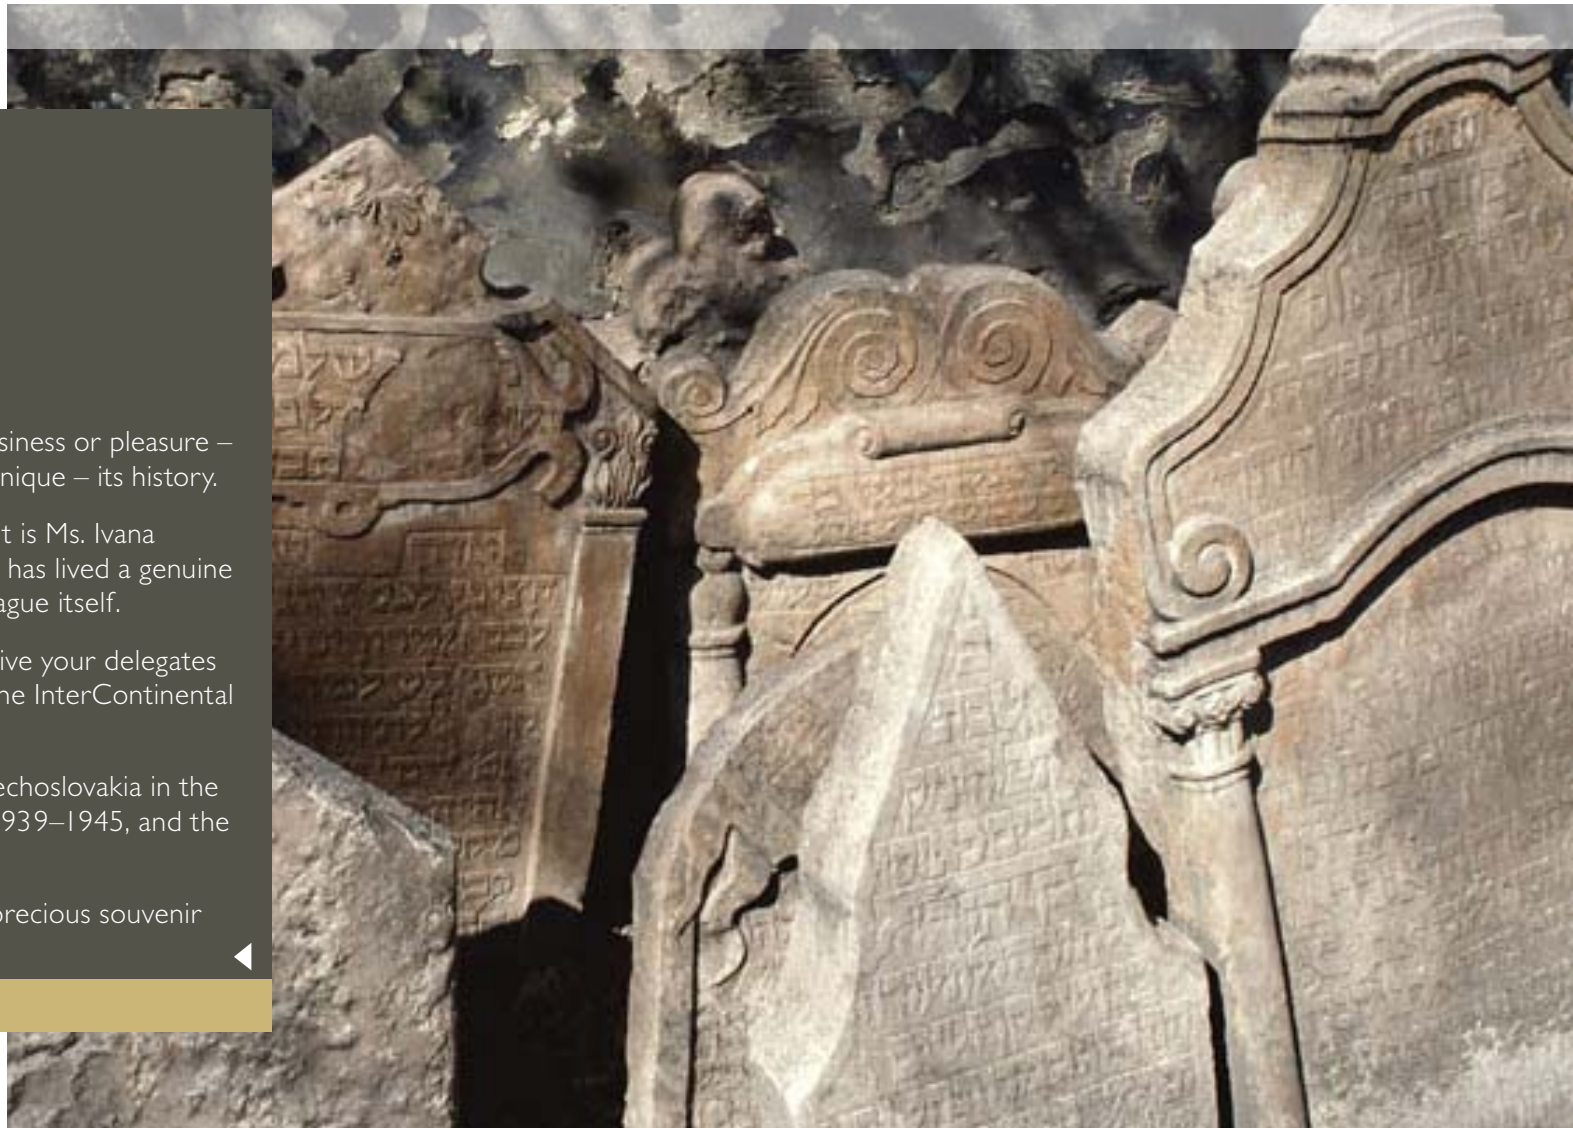

Someone who is an expert on this very subject is Ms. Ivana Bachmeierova. For almost three decades Ivana has lived a genuine love story with the history of Bohemia and Prague itself.

As well as suggesting places to see, Ivana can give your delegates all the information they need on the city and the InterContinental Prague locality.

Be inspired by Ivana's topics, which include Czechoslovakia in the communism era 1848–1989, Czechoslovakia 1939–1945, and the History of Jews in Bohemia and Moravia.

Allow your delegates to take home the most precious souvenir of all – genuine insight. ◀
