ENRICHING EXPERIENCES FOR OUR GUESTS AND OUR ENVIRONMENT

We believe that a responsible meeting is not only what you experience in the meeting room but also knowing that your hotel respects the destination around it.

We're proud to partner the leaders in geotourism, the National Geographic Center for Sustainable Destinations. Our ambition is that guests enjoy enriching experiences that reveal what makes a place truly special – its heritage, culture and tradition – and the importance of protecting it.

At InterContinental we use a holistic approach to being a responsible business: to work from the grass roots up, recognising each individual hotel team as the experts best placed to use their local knowledge for developing community and environmental initiatives that meet the specific needs of the destination. This Insider Collection gives delegates access to some of these unique experiences, and for those meetings that stay in the meeting room, you can be assured our hotel is working behind the scenes to protect what is special about the place for fellow travellers.

It stands as living testimony to almost four centuries of political and cultural prominence. You can choose to host a more intimate event for as few as 10 delegates, or, for larger, more formal occasions, the venue can easily cater for up to 300 delegates.

LA ROGATIVA BREAK

According to a popular Puerto Rican legend, British troops were besieging San Juan, Puerto Rico on the night of April 30, 1797. The townswomen, led by a bishop, formed a rogativa (prayer procession) and marched through the streets of the city singing hymns and carrying torches while praying for the deliverance of the city.

Outside the walls, the invaders mistook the torch-lit movement for the arrival of Spanish reinforcements. When morning came, they were gone from the island and the city was saved from a possible invasion. Four statues, sculptured by Lindsay Daen in the Plazuela de la Rogativa (Rogativa Plaza) in Old San Juan, pay tribute to the bishop and townswomen who participated in La Rogativa

Enjoy freshly brewed Puerto Rican Regular and Decaffeinated Coffee, accompanied by delightful confectionery including Brazo Gitano, Polvorones, Fresh Tropical Fruit 'Limbers', Queso Blanco with Guava Cubes, Coquito Individual Cheese Cake.
