ENRICHING EXPERIENCES FOR OUR GUESTS AND OUR ENVIRONMENT

We believe that a responsible meeting is not only what you experience in the meeting room but also knowing that your hotel respects the destination around it.

We're proud to partner the leaders in geotourism, the National Geographic Center for Sustainable Destinations. Our ambition is that guests enjoy enriching experiences that reveal what makes a place truly special – its heritage, culture and tradition – and the importance of protecting it.

At InterContinental we use a holistic approach to being a responsible business: to work from the grass roots up, recognising each individual hotel team as the experts best placed to use their local knowledge for developing community and environmental initiatives that meet the specific needs of the destination. This Insider Collection gives delegates access to some of these unique experiences, and for those meetings that stay in the meeting room, you can be assured our hotel is working behind the scenes to protect what is special about the place for fellow travellers.

DISCOVER THE HOUSE OF ANDROMEDA

With stunning views over the beach and the hills of Jaffa, this stunning house is named after Princess Andromeda, the daughter of Cepheus and Cassiopeia, the Ethiopian king and queen of Greek mythology. The rock to which the beautiful princess was chained can, legend has it, still be seen to this day from the windows of Andromeda House.

Perfect for an afternoon conference or private event, you can make full and exclusive use of this original and wonderful house and its exceptional on-site service, which includes delicious cuisine and fine wines. Every business event can be catered for and tailored to your specific requirements.

SPEND PART OF YOUR MEETING AT HATACHANA — THE OLD TRAIN STATION

For something a bit different for your delegates, try a trip to the Old Train Station. But don't expect to get on a train. After lying in ruins for 60 years the once thriving railway station for traffic between Jaffa and Jerusalem, located between the Neve Zedek neighborhood and Old Jaffa, has become the trendiest cultural and leisure point of interest in the city. The 16 buildings of the old train station have been fully restored and now house a variety of restaurants, bars, cafés, art galleries and shops boasting local and international brands.

CHANGE THE WAY YOU THINK, FEEL AND ARE

Experience a group dinner the Blackout Restaurant in the 'Nalaga'at' Centre. Delegates will dine in complete darkness only reliant on their four senses (Smell, Hear, Touch and Taste), being served by a staff of blind waiters. After dinner your hosts will take you on a truly inspiring narrative journey into how they tackle the challenges of their day-to-day life.

'Nalaga'at theatre' then raises the curtain with its successful production 'Light is Heard in Zig Zag', a play originally written and directed for twelve deaf-blind individuals, who up until then had lived in total darkness and silence. The play is highly acclaimed by both audiences and critics. A truly memorable experience.

SHAKSHUKA BREAK

Probably the most popular egg tomato dish in Israel is Shakshuka, one of those onomatopoeic Hebrew and North African words, which sounds like the name of a comic book hero, or some kind of fierce, long-forgotten martial art. Yet, it translates into “all mixed up” and in reality is a staple of Yemeni, Tunisian, Moroccan, Algerian and Israeli cuisine. Shakshuka is a popular and easy to make dish with amazing flavors that pop in your mouth. There are two types: ‘Red’ Shakshuka is the more traditional dish, using red and yellow peppers, tomatoes, onions, and various spices and seasonings. ‘Green’ Shakshuka offers the same great taste with spinach. Our Shakshuka break is completed with assorted condiments of homemade green tehina, spicy sroug, and freshly prepared Israeli salad.

ISRAELI HUMMUS AND FALAFEL BREAK

Falafel, originally from Egypt, was introduced to Europe and the United States sometime in the 1970s by the Israelis. Ask any Israeli to point out one thing that embodies 'Israeliness' and chances are nine out of 10 will say 'hummus'. What is it about the pale chickpea paste eaten everywhere, anytime, that evokes passionate discussions and fan clubs and embodies Israel? Find out for yourself with a typical coffee break featuring the most celebrated culinary icons falafel and hummus and learn how to prepare hummus yourself with the help of our recipe cards. Hurry, it tastes best when eaten with fresh, warm pita bread.
